Too Little, Too Late

Part III Fw 190D-9's

Suggested Kit: Tamiya 1/48 Fw 190D-9

A/C of operation Bodden-Platz. Center bomb rack for SC250 Bomb. Focke-Wulf Fw 190D-9 of JG2, January, 1945. RLM 83 Dunkelgrün fuselage and RLM 83/RLM 75 Grauviolet upper wings. RLM 76 Lichtblau beneath, heavy RLM 82 tail mottling and no fuselage mottling. Black spinner. Photo on page 5, reference 4. Fuselage upper surface may have been a segmented style, but our photo is not 100% clear. Wz.Nr. is unknown. A fictitious number is provided and should be used only if you so desire.

Very Dirty appearance on these A/C specially around the exhaust/fuselage area.

Lower section of fuselage plug may have been Natural Metal.

Focke-Wulf Fw 190D-9, A/C captured by British Forces and turned over to USAAC, Spring 1945. Segmented scheme of RLM 83 Dunkelgrün and RLM 75 Grauviolet over RLM 76 Lichtblau with heavy RLM 82 tail mottling and no fuselage mottling. Black spinner with short spiral. Reference 6 page 57.

Notice over-painted defense bands.

Focke-Wulf Fw 190D-9, of IV/JG 3, Prenzlau, Germany, 1945. Segmented camouflage scheme of RLM 83 Dunkelgrün and RLM 75 Grauviolet over RLM 76 Lichtblau with RLM 83 Dunkelgrün and RLM 75 Grauviolet tail mottling. Home defense bands oversprayed in RLM 75. Wing root cannon cover panels are painted RLM 76. Reference one, page 71 and front cover. Wz.Nr. is unknown. A fictitious number is provided and should be used only if you so desire.

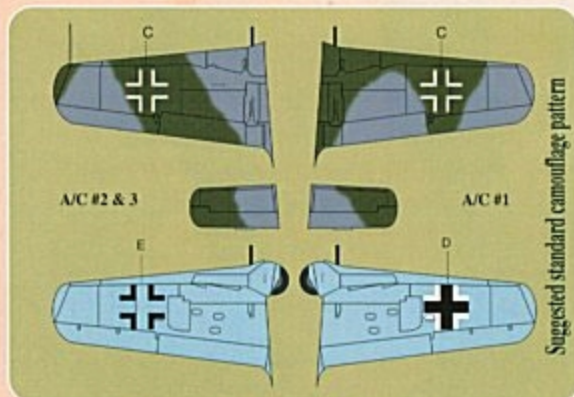

NOTE:

Two full sets of stencils for the Fw-190 A/F/D are provided. Looking at pictures of these late war A/C, they do not seem to have all stencils applied. We are supplying you two sets in the hope that you find them useful perhaps when completing a future BMW powered bird.

Wz.Nr. for A/C 1 & 3 are fictitious. Use only if you so desire.

Happy Modelling.
