Pacific Superfortresses

Pt. 1

48-259

869th Bomb Squadron

B-29 Serial Number 42-24592 "DAUNTLESS DOTTY", 497th Bomb Group, 869th Bomb Squadron, 73rd Bomb Wing. Overall natural metal with black de-icer boots and black propellers with yellow tips. The nose art and kill markings were duplicated on both sides of the aircraft as shown, and the 869th BS emblem was handed. Photo, on Motorbook Warbird History, B29 Superfortress page 29, shows right side of nose. Page 52 shows left side without 869 logo. However, it may have carried it at some later date, therefore we have provided it.

Piloted by Col. Bob Morgan, "Dotty" led the first B-29 raid on Japan, November 24, 1944. Ironically, Dotty crashed into the sea just off Kwajalein atoll, while returning to the US right before war's end.

B-29 Serial Number 42-24893 "Little Organ Annie", 794th Bomb Squadron, 868th Bomb Group. Overall natural metal with Black de-icer boots. For space considerations, the fin triangle has been broken into separate pieces. See the construction diagrams below for proper placement. The propellers were black with yellow tips.
