

ROCAF MIRAGE-2000D-5i

The Mirage 2000-5 is the latest variant of the French delta-wing Mirage 2000 fighters. It was an extensive upgrade based on the Mirage 2000C in order to boost export sales and keep the ageing Mirage on par with the F-16. The effort was proven a success when the first order was received from Taiwan in 1992, only one year after the aircraft's initial flight in April 1991. This also marks the first ROCAF (Republic of China Air Force) purchase of French fighters since 1937.

The Taiwanese Air Force purchased 60 Mirage 2000-5s in total, of which 12 were the Mirage 2000-5Di (double seat). The procurement also included DEFA 554 cannons since the double-seaters were not internally mounted with 30mm guns as in the single-seat version. The ROCAF Mirage 2000-5s are operated by the 499th Tactical Fighter Wing at Hsinchu, and entered operational service in 1997 when the first squadron, 41st TFS (later TFG) commissioned.
