

Above – normal set up for one basket and two jerrycans in holders.

Below – option 2

Check your references.

You will need to cut out the engine deck mesh on the rear of the hull and glue from the underside the square insert (with concentric circles) and then attached the photo etch mesh over it from the outside. The 1977 version simply had the two jerrycans added to the turret rear on the right side.